Welcome Back

Happy New Year. The children have made a super start to the year and are back and eager to learn. Carols round the tree was a lovely way to end the term and we raised £50 for Save the Children. Thank you.

Staffing News

Ms Simmonds has joined our staff as the Eagle Owls teacher, she is settling in really well and has been very impressed with how welcoming everyone has been. Mrs Stacey is back from her maternity leave and will be teaching Tawny Owls on a Monday and Tuesday. She says it feels as though she has never left.

First Friday Books

As there was not an opportunity for First Friday books at the end of last term or last Friday, if you would like to pop in and look at your child's learning and have an informal chat with staff they will be available for a short while at the end of the day, this Friday.

Lunchtime Play leader

We are looking for an enthusiastic person to help support the supervision of lunches and lead outside play activities with the children at lunchtimes. The hours are 11.45-1.00p.m every day and involves preparing the tables for lunchtime, supervising and supporting the children while eating their lunches, clearing up and supervising and supporting the children's play outside. If you are interested, or know somebody who might be, please collect an application form and job description from the office. All staff will be subject to Disclosure and Barring Service Checks along with other relevant employment checks. Closing date will be 1st February, with interviews taking place the week beginning 6th February.

Parking

There have been several occasions recently where the minibuses and taxi cannot park outside school on the designated zigzags. Just a gentle reminder to keep this area clear please. I know from other schools in the area that our PCSO has been doing random spot checks on parking outside local schools to ensure our children stay safe at the end of the day. Unauthorised vehicles parking on the zigzags are liable to a fine.

Book Fair

We are holding a half price book fair from Scholastic between Thursday 26th January and Tuesday 31st January. There are some really good value books to buy, a great way to spend Christmas money. Mrs Bealing will also be running a competition with a prize for the winner.
